THE LAW OF CONTRIBUTION

Growing Yourself Enables You To Grow Others

I. Adding Value To Others

A. You cannot _____

B. Daily Ask Your Self: _____

C. What Good _____

II. Be A River, Not A Reservoir

These questions are excellent for identifying someone who can encourage us to be our best:

A. Who _____ you and offers you a baseline of wisdom?

B. Who _____ you to aspire to be a better person?

C. Who _____ you to think?

D. Who _____ on your dreams?

E. Who _____ enough to rebuke you?

F. Who is _____ when you have failed?

The JOHN MAXWELL Team

G. Who _____ in pressurized moments without being asked?

H. Who _____ into your life?

I. Who _____ when you become dispirited?

J. Who _____ you to seek faithfully after God?

K. Who _____ you unconditionally?

Now, turn these questions around on yourself and reflect how YOU can be this person to someone else.

III. Making The Right Contribution Choices

A. _____

B. _____

OVERCOME GROWING PAINS

(Specific steps to amazing growth)

What is your underlying desire in life?

Self-fulfillment or self- development?

Are your best efforts focused on making you feel good, or making someone else successful?

Consider how “others may own you” through unhealthy relationships, unfair expectations, or undesired attention. Make the needed adjustments for these relationships.

Are you a “Go-Getter” or a “Go-Giver”?
